

Ike's Foreign Aid Bill Slashed $1,000,000,000

Sum Trimmed Off 3 Billion Military Fund

Same Move In House Committee Failed Last Week

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Foreign Affairs Committee was reported today to have approved a $1 billion cut in President Eisenhower's $4.9 billion foreign aid program.

Sources close to the committee told the United Press the reduction, all of it in the $3 billion fund the President requested for military aid, was approved at a closed committee meeting.

THE DEVELOPMENT came as Secretary of State John Foster Dulles pledged the administration to an all-out Senate fight to win specific authority to make long term foreign aid commitments.

He told his news conference that the House committee's declaration favoring long term aid does not meet his hopes for clear congressional approval of the administration plan.

The House group has rejected the President's plea for authority to commit the United States to support long term aid projects. Instead, it adopted a resolution saying Congress considers itself bound to continue foreign aid as long as the Communist menace exists.

REP. JAMES P. RICHARDS (D-SC), the committee chairman, said he expects the group to complete action on the foreign aid program later today.

A move to cut the request by $1 billion failed last week by a close vote. Richards said at the time, however, that the issue would be reconsidered today.

Word that it was adopted leaked out while the committee was still in session.

2 Senate Bodies to Probe Feud Despite Wilson

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two Senate subcommittees today served notice they will investigate inter-service controversies over missiles and air power despite Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson's claim that squabbling has been exaggerated.

Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.), announced that his Armed Services Subcommittee on air power will take testimony this week on the "positions" of the Army, Navy and Air Force in the missile field.

THE SUBCOMMITTEE, Symington said, also "will inquire into the Navy's mission in the field of air power, including both its primary and secondary missions."

Sen. Dennis Chavez (D-N.M.), said his Military Appropriations Subcommittee also will "look into this mess" stirred up by bitter inter-service rivalries over roles and missions.

Wilson drove the feud underground at least temporarily Monday with disclaimers from top military leaders that their differences on strategy have reached the sh-kicking stage.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson said today after talking with President Eisenhower that it might be "dangerous" for anybody in the military to revive a feud between the services.

Wilson said the President is "a bit unhappy about the fact that we don't seem to get along better in the services."

"What is the next step in the feud?" a reporter asked Wilson.

"Let's see who sticks his head up next," Wilson said with a grim smile. "I think it might be a little dangerous."

NATION'S LARGEST COUNTY TOO LARGE FOR BLACKIE

Dry Camp Blackie sent the San Bernardino Chamber of Commerce a letter asking for a little map of San Bernardino County that he could carry in his wallet. In due time he received a letter from the Secretary of the C. of C. stating that there are no small maps of the great county of San Bernardino. Also the good Secretary offered this, "I wish to help you and suggest you contact the local Five & Dime Store who have cut-out puzzles of the county that I think you might carry parts of, in each of your pockets."

Nose Count Bogs Hearing Again in Rancho Mirage

The vital decision as to whether there are 500 or more "inhabitants" within the boundaries of the proposed city of Rancho Mirage was not reached yesterday and county supervisors continued the hearing to 10 a.m., Thursday, May 24.

There was a difference of opinion as to the number and definition of inhabitants. William Shaw, attorney for the petitioners for incorporation said there are 580 inhabitants. John Babbage, attorney for the opponents contended there are 475.

Supervisor William Jones repeated his opinion that there should be a count by the sheriff.

Said County Counsel Ray T. Sullivan, Jr., "It is the burden of the proponents to show whether there are enough inhabitants to qualify. The opponents may endeavor to undermine the findings of the proponents. There is no place in the procedure where there is any provision for the county to take over an independent determination as to the number of inhabitants."

As to the definition of an inhabitant, attorney Shaw declared, "It is almost impossible to come upon a court decision of what an inhabitant is. The method of enumerating which is taken by the U.S. Bureau of Census, used in the count made for us, seems to be the only reasonable method of ascertaining the number of inhabitants. They count only those who spend more than half their time in the area. This is the basis the county uses to make the claim against the state for gasoline tax refund. If it is good enough for the county and the city to use as a basis for getting money, it is good enough for use in determining the number of inhabitants."

Should the board finally decide there are 500 or more inhabitants in the area a date will be set for an election by the people on the proposed incorporation.

Council to Talk Use and Sales Taxes Tonight

City council tonight is expected to introduce the sales and use tax ordinance, with at least one group of businessmen expected to protest the new tax regulations.

Chiefly affected by the new law will be on and off-sale liquor dealers, as well as automobile dealers.

The council also is expected to: Discuss redistricting, with the possibility of action.

Authorize H. C. Timberlake, airlines service planning consultant of Madison, Wis., to attend CAA hearings in Washington on behalf of the city.

Consider bids for preparation of a master plan for the airport.

Consider for passage the swimming pool, sewer connection fees, and Relardo change of zone ordinances.

Anita Ekberg's Wedding Delayed by Prim Mayor

FLORENCE, Italy (AP)—Movie star Anita Ekberg married British actor Anthony Steel today despite a prim mayor who refused to let them hold the ceremony in the ancient City Council Chamber.

It took the beautiful blonde and the former partook officer three hours to find another setting in the City Hall for the ceremony.

It also took the glamorous actress known as the "Swedish Iceberg" three hours to squeeze herself into a form-fitting wedding dress, but she succeeded.

So the wedding came off at last, regardless of last minute complications that included a lovers' spat Monday night, rainy weather this morning and a hasty search for a suitable setting today.

Low Radiation Reported from H-Bomb Blast

ABOARD USS MT. MCKINLEY AT KWAJALEIN (AP)—Atomic officials disclosed today that the air-dropped hydrogen bomb lived up to its advance billing as a radioactively "sanitary" weapon.

Reports from radiological stations throughout the Marshall Islands showed "no increase in background radiation" as a result of Monday's explosion.

The 100-mile long radioactive cloud was reported drifting harmlessly over the open ocean north of the Marshalls.

Reports from ships, planes and land stations throughout the region surrounding the proving ground "showed no significant radioactive fallout at any point outside Bikini atoll." And at Bikini atoll, the fallout was "relatively little."

However, the Kyodo News Service reported in Tokyo that the Japanese ship Mizuho Maru radioed that it found the sea 1300 miles south of the test site to be radioactive.

L.A. Man Plans Plea to Rainier to Free Father Jailed in Dice Case

MONTE CARLO (AP)—Los Angeles businessman Jason Lee Jr. said today he would appeal directly to Prince Rainier III to spring his father from jail until his trial on a loaded dice charge.

"He's going to die in that jail if somebody doesn't do something," Lee said of his 60-year-old father who has been on a hunger strike since last Friday.

Lee and two other Americans have been behind bars for three months waiting trial of using loaded dice in a crap game at the Monte Carlo Casino.

The younger Lee said he did not plan to ask Princess Grace to intercede even though she is a fellow American.

"After all, it's the prince who is head of state," Lee said. "He might get peeved if I appealed to Princess Grace. But I am serious in considering asking the prince himself for an audience as soon as he gets back from his honeymoon."

600 Here Attend 'Rally for Jackie' Dinner in Park

"Rally for Jackie" with a western cowboy band and free chuckwagon dinner almost 600 persons at Tamarisk Park last night, honoring Jacqueline Cochran Odlum, candidate for Congress.

The popular candidate from the Coachella Valley was introduced to the gathering by desert resident Freeman Gosden of Amos and Andy fame, who said that, being a friend of President Eisenhower and his family, he knows they are friendly to "Jackie and would like to see her in Congress."

"What is good enough for the Eisenhower, is good enough for me," said Gosden, and then presented the candidate to the throng.

Mrs. Odlum told the gathering that she would take immediate action on two major problems facing the resort.

First, she promised, if elected, her fullest assistance and cooperation in getting better and more direct airline service in and out of the Village. She said she was the only woman in the United States who serves on the Board of directors of a major airline, "and recognizes the procedure to successfully get this very necessary service."

"Everything possible must be done," she said, "to encourage winter and tourist travel to Palm Springs."

In the second point, the candidate said that she would work for disposition of the hundreds of acres of Indian lands within the City of Palm Springs. She said the land comprises almost 5000 acres within the city limits that is owned by local Tribal Indian groups, and promised to work for justice to the Indians.

Edgar L. McCoubrey, chairman for the Odlum for Congress Committee, arranged the rally and acted as master of ceremonies. He was assisted by Mrs. Frank C. Bennett, civic worker and active supporter of the candidate.

The rally, open to the public with a free chuckwagon dinner and entertainment, was climaxed by hundreds of persons wishing the candidate success.

Dulles Raps Egypt's Link to Red China

Secretary Deplores Recognition As An Aid To Russia

Dulles told a news conference that the United States regrets Egyptian Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser's action.

He said the United States is not in sympathy with Nasser when he takes actions which tend to extend the influence of the Soviet Union and Red China. This government is only in sympathy with the Egyptian leader, he said, when he takes actions to recognize Egypt's independence.

Dulles also disclosed that a resolution probably will be introduced in the U.N. Security Council to follow up U.N. Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold's peace mission to the Middle East.

He said the resolution, which is not yet drafted, will test Russia's recent declarations that it is ready to ease Middle Eastern tensions.

County Counsel Urges No Action on Horse Track

County Counsel Ray T. Sullivan, Jr., recommended to county supervisors yesterday that they leave matters as they are and refrain from seeking a re-hearing on the court decision in regard to the board handling of the Desert Turf Club application for a zoning permit for a quarter-horse track at Rancho Mirage.

A decision by the Fourth District Court of Appeals in Fresno has reversed the decision of San Bernardino Superior Court Judge Bruce Finley, with instructions to grant a writ of mandate. "When this has been done, the Board may expect an order of the Superior Court required the matter to be reopened and a new hearing held," Sullivan told the supervisors.

"Any further action by the Board before that time would be premature."

"While the Appellate Court procedures provide a channel through which a re-hearing might be sought, or a hearing in a higher court," said Sullivan, "we are of the belief that such efforts would be fruitless under the circumstances of this case. We recommend that the matter be pressed no further."

Judge Finley refused to issue a writ of mandate forcing the supervisors to reconsider their decision to refuse a permit to operate the race track.

Sullivan's recommendation was filed.

Hospital Cooling Contract Let

Board of directors of Desert Hospital yesterday awarded a contract for installing additional air conditioning at the hospital to M & M Heating and Refrigeration of Banning, on the firm's bid of $9,760.

Three bids were submitted for the new equipment.

Directors adjourned their meeting to May 28 when they will hear reports from architects on possible reduction in costs of the proposed addition. Bids for the addition authorized by voters in a bond election were previously rejected because they exceeded the sums voted.

An Editorial

By GEORGE E. CAMERON, JR.
President
The Desert Sun Publishing Co.

The California Highway Commission is to be congratulated on the speed with which it recognized and acted on the perilous condition of Highway 111 between Palm Springs and the Route 74 junction (Palms-to-Pines turnoff).

It has authorized the expenditure of $36,000 for hard-surfacing a six-foot shoulder on each side for a lineal distance of 8.6 miles. This is the only stretch between the Village and Indio which lacks this common sense safety margin, and is the expanse on which the great majority of fatal and bodily injury accidents have occurred.

The Commission's action will at least provide the motorist an opportunity for self-preservation when a head-on collision impends. Now he has only the alternative, when traveling at speeds above 40 miles, of meeting the crash or turning out into the sand which inevitably will overturn him.

Now, with this project completed, it is reasonable to believe the awful toll of accidents striking down visitors, as well as such Palm Springs leaders as George Strebe, will subside.

The Commission's decision followed an editorial campaign by The Desert Sun, heartily joined in by the Palm Desert Chamber of Commerce, for mitigating this aptly-named "death gap." The Desert Sun is happy that these efforts have brought speedy results, and renews its determination to ever dedicate itself to the improvement of the Desert Empire as well as Palm Springs.

As the Empire's daily newspaper we wish to take no special credit, however, for accepting a duty which patently falls upon any instrument of public opinion worthy of the name.

Satisfying as is this victory, though, we feel it should by no means halt or recess the crusade for complete elimination of the death gap. The two-lane Village-Palm Desert road each year carries more and more traffic. The presence of six-foot usable shoulders will not make it a four-lane highway. They are a preventative measure only. So henceforth The Desert Sun intends to urge continuously upon the Highway Commission the acquisition of necessary rights-of-way to widen the artery to a full four lanes.

Not until that job is completed can this newspaper, and the people of this and other area resort communities, truthfully say they have fulfilled their responsibilities to the motorists in this region.

On this continued mission we earnestly solicit the support of every community in the Desert Empire.

Civic Chorus Left Flat — by Their Tires, That is

Members of the Civic Chorus felt they were left flat last night.

Following a rehearsal at Cahulla school, they went to their cars and found at least five had flat tires. The air was gone from two tires on one car.

Evelyn Spikre reported the incident to police, who found that tree twigs had been jammed into the valves.

Peterson to Get Assistant June 1 from Phoenix

City Manager R. W. Peterson will acquire an administrative assistant June 1, who will aid him in his routine duties and permit him to devote more time to specific topics.

Richard B. De Long, 25, now an administrative intern at Phoenix, will assume his duties on that date. The position was created by city council some time ago.

De Long has a BA in political science and a MA in government management from the University of Denver. He served in the Air Force in 1951-52 as a career guidance specialist in personnel work.

He was employed six months with a planning consultant firm in Denver, working on master plans for Las Cruces and Sidney, Nebraska, and has been with the City of Phoenix since last July.

Peterson, in commenting on De Long's selection, said that his "present experience as an intern will be very valuable in practical application of theory. His experience has included research in organizational studies, administrative procedures, work methods and other specific problems. He has a good general background in personnel planning, finance and administration."

Weather Gives Most of Nation Taste of Summer

By UNITED PRESS

The weatherman forgot about spring Tuesday and treated most of the nation to a preview of summer.

May weather has vacillated between wintry and summery temperatures shoving aside the mild, pleasant days which are supposed to come with spring. Tuesday was no exception.

Early morning temperatures were mostly in the 60's or higher. The mercury was in the 70's before dawn throughout the nation's south-central portion and as far north as Illinois and Kansas.

Records wilted in the unseasonable hot spell Monday. New marks included 93 degrees at Columbia, Mo., 97 at Kansas City, Mo., and 95 at Concordia, Kan.

Asphalt Plant Permit Denied

An application for a permit to establish a sand and gravel pit, rock crusher and asphalt plant near Palm Springs was denied by county supervisors Monday, in accordance with the recommendation of the county planning commission.

The plant site is nearly two miles east of Indian Avenue adjoining the north city limits.

His show at 8 p.m. over Channel 4 will feature Kim Novak, Pevi Bailey, Vic Damone and Ken Murray.

Federal Edict Threatens 38 New Homes

Engineers Seeking Data To Veto Land Bureau's Decision

City of Palm Springs tonight will vigorously renew a fight with the Bureau of Land Management of the Department of the Interior.

City council will reject a decision by the Bureau which threatens several new subdivisions in the north half of Section 26, one of which contains 38 houses under construction, and which could invalidate several street deeds, as well as take away from Smoke Tree Ranch a triangle of land broadsiding 60 feet along Highway 111 and narrowing one-half mile deep along the west boundary.

The controversy stems from two section re-surveys, one conducted by Francis E. Joy, cadastral engineer of the General Land Office in 1923, and the other by Paul N. Clifford, cadastral engineer of the Bureau of Indian Affairs in 1953.

Original surveys were conducted in 1855, 1885 and 1893.

The city maintains that Joy erred in making his re-survey in regard to the Section corners of 23, 24, 25 and 26. In establishing these by proportional measurement, a miscalculation was made, the city says.

Clifford's re-survey coincided with one made in establishing the highway route, as well as basic subdivision patterns used, the city contends.

Councilman Jerry Sanborn, who is a licensed land surveyor, and Director of Public Works Frank Hamerschlag are currently working with county officials in examining all possible records to obtain conclusive factual data to overthrow the decision of the Bureau of Land Management. Sanborn may present this in person in Washington, D.C., during his vacation in July.

All subdivisions and road alignments recorded have been made according to Clifford's re-survey, with no evidence that Joy's re-survey was ever recognized in this manner, the city maintains.

Official action tonight will consist of rejection of the Bureau of Land Management's re-endorsement of Joy's re-survey. This action had resulted from a resolution adopted by city council June 23, 1955, which asked that Clifford's re-survey be made official.

This resolution "will be sent to all interested parties, as well as to Representative John Phillips, and U.S. Senators Thomas Kuchel and William Knowland."

Fire Regulations Effectuated in San Bernardino Range

Forest Supervisor Sim Jarvi announced this week that a period of fire hazard now exists upon all lands of the United States within the San Bernardino National Forest, which will continue through December 15.

On July 1 certain specified areas within the forest will be closed to public entry as a fire prevention measure.

The regulations now being enforced include: Requiring a written permit for campfires (including trailer stoves or a fire in a stove burning any kind of fuel); prohibiting of smoking except as permitted in posted areas; improved campgrounds and improved places of habitation.

Second Water Application Filed in Tamarisk Area

Application for the formation of a new public utility corporation to serve water over an expanse of 3,500 acres is on file with the Public Utility Commission.

The new corporation, whose officers indicate an interlocking association with the Tamarisk Country Club, has been formed under the name of The Tamarisk Water Company.

The announcement from the Public Utility Commission also stated that an application had been recently filed by Harold J. Hicks, of the Palm Valley Water Company, to serve a portion of this same area.

President of the Tamarisk Water Company is John A. Connors. Among the directors is Sol Lesser, home owner here and director of Tamarisk Country Club, as is Connors.

Both applicants propose identical rates for water, including a minimum monthly charge of $2 for the first 500 cubic feet of water.

Lesser announced that Robert Sherrill, presently manager of the Cathedral City Water Company, will manage the new utility company when and if the permit for service is granted by PUC.

Plans of the Tamarisk Water Company also include the erection of two 1,000,000 gallon water tanks on a high elevation overlooking the proposed area it will serve.

Lesser said that the growth of the area within a short span of a year is expected to be phenomenal. He pointed out that several subdivisions are now in operation or about to begin and predicted that his water company would serve between 1,800 and 2,000 homes within a few years.

The water will be obtained from two wells now owned by Tamarisk Country Club and the company would also serve that golf club.

North Shore Open Now for Reservations

Jack Linthicum, formerly managing director of La Paz Resort Club, now directing the operation of the North Shore Tavern at Lake Arrowhead, announced that the mountain resort is now open for reservations by guests.

"I have the same crew working for the North Shore Tavern which rendered such fine service in Palm Springs," said Linthicum.

"Frank Brown, the colorful grey-haired gentleman, is acting as the maitre d' at the hotel."

Presently the North Shore Tavern and its wide expanse of Lake Arrowhead frontage is being used by Universal Motion Picture Corporation, as the background for a picture in which Tony Curtis is being starred.

Many Villagers who knew Linthicum during his stay in Palm Springs have already made reservations for their summer vacation at this famed spa with the opening day for guests to be May 29, Linthicum said. Others from Palm Springs have joined the North Shore Tavern Swim and Tennis Club.

"We will certainly welcome with great warmth anyone from the Palm Springs resort area," added Linthicum.

North Dakota averages about a dozen tornadoes a year with only about half that number doing much damage.

SAFETY FEATURES? Sure, we've got 'em. But Dodge is designed to keep you out of accidents. You'll find out about "preventive safety" when you . . .

DISCOVER THE DIFFERENCE IN DODGE!

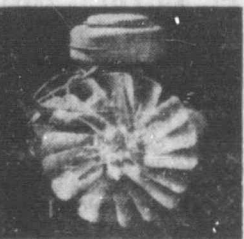

Most dramatic proof of "power under perfect control" in automobile history! In 31,000 miles of continuous day-and-night driving at full throttle (like running the Indianapolis "500" 62 times in succession!) the '56 Dodge established its claim as the greatest handling car on the road today.

Even the windshield wipers are safer! They're electric—no dangerous "slow down" (like vacuum types) when you step on the gas.

No "guess work" here—it's simple, sure, safe! Dodge push-button driving is mechanically perfect—the safest, surest way of driving! Control panel is out-of-reach of mischief or mistakes.

Takes the terror out of blow-outs! Dodge Safety-Rim wheels let you guide your Dodge to a safe, sure stop.

Dodge power is your "safety ally!" The Dodge V-8 uses aircraft engine principles to put greater break-away power at your command.

Naturally, Dodge has pioneered in special safety-equipment too.

- Safety Seat Belts
- Safety Padded Sun Visor
- Solex-Tinted Safety Glass

These are available at extra cost. However, the preventive safety features described on this page are standard equipment—exclusive to Dodge in its field.

The eleven fliers making the trip by air to Palm Springs were Roy Sherrill, flight commander, Ester Rice, operator of the Sky Park Airfield at Santa Cruz, John Foster, publicity chairman of the club and his wife Mrs. John Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Dent Snider, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Houghton, Harold Hade, Tex Owens and Linnea Bohr. The Vine Streeters present were Ward and Lilly Strickland, "Rog" and Marge Rogers, Ken and Jo Powell, Roy and Daisy Leggett, Archie and Myrtle Bradley, Irene Whittinger, Lindy Ray and John Ornelas.

Boyd and Marie Irvin have returned from a very enjoyable trip to the Grand Canyon. The Irvins have made many trailer trips to interesting places but this was their first visit to the Grand Canyon.

Also visitors to the Grand Canyon this week will be Wilson and Beulah Hall. Enroute they plan to spend a day in Las Vegas and visit other places.

Con and Alice Anderson have returned from a trip to Oakland, where they visited with her sister.

Word was received from David and Minnie Snyder advising their friends that they were settled for the summer in Long Beach. He has joined the Lincoln Park Chess Club and is busily engaged working his way up the Club's chess ladder.

Howard Matthias had as his guests over the weekend his son, Gregg, and daughter-in-law, Angela, and his granddaughter, Pamela Ann, all of San Diego.

Mrs. Selma E. Andrews of Sonoma Road in Palm Springs has rented Lot D-16 for her 45-foot Rollahome trailer. Mrs. Andrews will use her Rollahome as a guest house for his sister and her secretary.

The playoff for the Whittier shuffle board trophy was concluded with Bill Rains and Ray Clark in the finals, and Clark emerging as the winner.

Duplicate bridge winners for the past week were Pearl Rogers and Lou Felix high scorers for north and south, and Ruth Parker and Florence Montgomery winning for east and west.

Quick Action by Father Saves Drowning Child

A Cathedral City father, using artificial respiration, saved the life of his four-year-old daughter Sunday, after he found her floating in a swimming pool at their home.

Charles Turnipseed, working in the yard of his home at 24-060 Corregidor Drive, heard a sudden scream from his wife who was in the house, and turned to see his daughter, Robin, floating face down in the swimming pool.

Pulling the child from the pool, he began artificial respiration and had revived her by the time the resuscitator arrived from Palm Springs.

When tea was first introduced in England in the 17th century, it was served only by the rich and only on special occasions. The reason: It cost $30 to $50 per pound.

Reich Continues Busy Schedule

Herman Reich, Palm Springs, candidate for Congress in the 29th District, continues his busy campaign schedule this week.

Last night he addressed the Veterans of Foreign Wars in Riverside, and at noon today was the speaker before the Downtown Lions Club at the Mission Inn there.

On Wednesday he will conduct a house-to-house campaign in the Imperial Valley, and Thursday noon will speak before the Brawley Lions Club.

Thursday night he will be the featured speaker at the installation dinner of the Desert Hot Springs Rotary Club, which will be Ladies Night too.

The American Meat Institute says Americans will eat 8,500,000 hot dogs this year. That's 800,000 miles of them.

Let's Not Spoil It

We're accustomed to so many good things in Palm Springs that one has to travel around once in a while to really appreciate them. As I go from place to place — particularly in resort areas — I can't help making a comparison.

Most noticeable of all is the difference in atmosphere. By that I mean not only the sunny climate and attractive surroundings, but the cheerful attitude of its people. We have here the combined ingredients for a carefree vacation that is hard to find anywhere else. There is something about Palm Springs that makes people leave their cares and worries behind — which is just what so many people need to do these days.

Palm Springs has been richly endowed by nature — and, so far, man hasn't spoiled it. The development of this desert playground has complimented — and not clashed with — the natural beauty of its setting. Many resort communities have spoiled their natural beauty with flashing neon signs and a conglomeration of architecture. Others have been spoiled by nearby factory smoke and smelly industry. These mixtures have so fouled up the true resort atmosphere that the whole place has been spoiled. No need in naming them — vacationing Villagers will see lots of such places this summer. They will remind them of Palm Springs — because they are so different!

Perhaps it's the grandeur of our mountains and the vastness of our desert vistas that make people more cheerful and optimistic. This is typical of all the West where people take a broad attitude toward life. It is too big for ruts.

Little wonder, then, that the Palm Springs resort area appeals to so many people from near and far. It has preserved a charm and developed a mental attitude that visitors cannot help but feel. It can all be wrapped up into one word — atmosphere.

So let's not spoil it.

Lots of places that have had natural beauty to begin with have been ruined by uncontrolled development. And all is lost once it gets out of hand. There is backing up when it comes to the course that has been set in the development of any community.

The difficulty of maintaining desirable controls is multiplied many times by rapid growth. This is the position in which Palm Springs now finds itself. Palm Springs is on the verge of a new era of rapid expansion. The question is whether or not the charm and atmosphere that has done so much to bring it this far will be preserved. It is going to take a strong City Council — supported by strong public opinion — to keep from letting down the bars. But it can be done with foresight and determination.

A healthy sign is the action of the Palm Springs Realty Board in deciding to review all zone applications, particularly in the county area surrounding the city. Other groups are showing an interest as well in the nature of any development. This is the sort of help which the City Council will need. Many newcomers to the area take a shortsighted view of development. If they see an opportunity of making some quick money they don't much care what the future effect on the community may be.

If Villagers will make it a point to look over carefully the resorts they visit this summer, they will return more determined than ever to preserve the charm of Palm Springs.

Remember?

(Messenger, Plainfield, Ind.)

Memory is often short-lived, especially if present conditions seem a little unfavorable. But a friend of the Messenger has checked the records and reminds voters, especially farmers, that . . . the top price for hogs under the OPA was $15.45. With hog prices at $16 they are still 55 cents per cwt. over the New Deal limit price of $15.45. Perhaps it is well for all of us to refresh our memory.

ROBERT S. ALLEN:

WASHINGTON—Another significant fight over oil is in the making in the Senate, but it will be much shorter and far less tumultuous than the bitter one over the vetoed natural gas bill.

This latest controversy is over a proposed Justice Department investigation of the operation of interstate oil compacts authorized by Congress last year.

A powerful bipartisan bloc, led by Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon Johnson, Tex., and Senator Styles Bridges, N.H., chairman of the Republican Policy Committee, is determined to oppose such a probe, and its chances of being approved are not promising.

Attorney General Herbert Brownell personally laid the plan before the Senate.

He went to the Senate Appropriations Subcommittee that handles the Justice Department's budget and asked for $762,000 to conduct a sweeping investigation of how these oil compacts are being administered by 21 states.

To do this job, Brownell explained he wants to set up three branch offices in different parts of the country and man them with 110 lawyers.

The subcommittee's response was blunt and hostile.

Senators Bridges and Johnson made it forcefully clear they are against the probe, and are going to do everything in their power to block it. And as of now, the two Senate leaders have the votes to do that, both in the Committee and in the full Senate.

They are raising the states' rights issue on this matter, and winning support from senators who disagreed with them earlier this year on the natural gas bill.

NOTE: Interstate oil compacts were first approved by Congress in 1936 and ran for three years. The joint resolution authorizing them last year was bipartisan.

the sponsors including Senator Everett Dirksen (R-Ill.). An amendment by Senator Paul Douglas (D-Ill.), chairman of the Joint Economic Committee, directed the Justice Department to make a study of these interstate agreements. It is under this provision that Attorney General Brownell proposes his sweeping probe.

THE FIREWORKS — Senator Bridges revived the critical grilling of Brownell.

"An interstate compact to conserve oil and gas is specifically an agreement between states," Bridges pointed out. "Just how does the federal government get into that?"

Brownell cited Senator Douglas' amendment.

"That calls for a study," declared Senator Johnson, "and not even the wildest daydreamer anticipated it would require setting up three branch offices with 110 lawyers to make it. I recall very clearly that when this amendment was considered, it was felt the Justice Department could review these compacts. No one had any idea of creating a new group of snoopers to invade the states to determine whether they are acting properly in enforcing their own laws."

Brownell contended it was the view of Assistant Attorney General Stanley Barnes, head of the Anti-Trust Division, that the proposed large staff is necessary to meet the requirements of the Douglas amendment.

"I want to emphasize," argued Brownell, "this is something that was imposed on us by Congress, and it is our interpretation of the joint resolution that was passed by Congress. If we have to do this job, we want to do a good one, of course. If our instructions are to be changed, we would like to have it clearly defined just what we are supposed to do."

Senator Bridges vigorously

echoed Johnson's declaration that Congress had not intended "hiring 110 lawyers to pry into these oil agreements between states." Brownell insisted the "legislative history" of the Douglas amendment sustained his view.

"We didn't ask for this," he said. "It's not the result of an ambitious kingdom maker. It is our best judgment that the law requires us to make a study of this kind and magnitude."

That was flatly challenged by Johnson.

"There is no legislative history that requires you to increase the Anti-Trust Division by 25 percent by hiring 110 attorneys to make this so-called study," retorted Johnson. "Senator Douglas didn't specify anything like that and you can't show it in the record."

"We're only trying to do what we were directed to do," asserted Brownell. "We didn't ask for this."

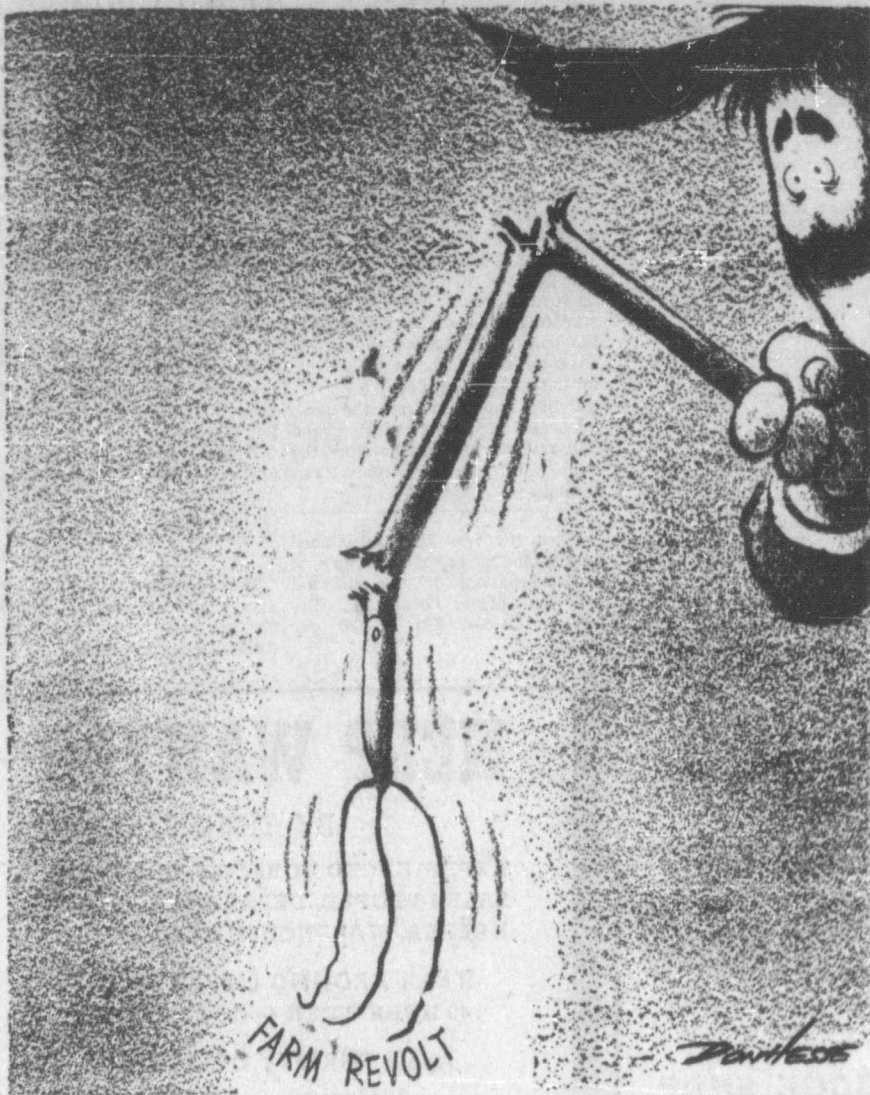

"And not having asked for it, then I'm sure you won't be too disappointed if you don't get it," replied Johnson. "This is one of the most amazing schemes I've heard of in a long time. Why, the compacts only cost $92,000 a year to operate, and you're asking $762,000 to investigate them. How paradoxical can you get?"

That ended the bristling discussion.

Senator Douglas is still undecided on what he will do when the matter comes before the full Senate. He is telling colleagues he considers Brownell's proposal to employ 110 attorneys "far-fetched," and that around 20 is all that is needed for "an adequate study."

NOTE: The House has voted a $4,265,000 budget for the Anti-Trust Division, but the investigation proposed by Brownell did not come up. Neither he nor any other Justice Department official said anything about it.

THIS SIDE of The Sun

"About the only things you can buy for a nickel nowadays," says Revilo Yrrah, "are postage stamps, chewing gum or five shares of uranium stock."

LITTERBUGS we still have with us. And, while a lot of us typewriter pummelers keep calling 'em names, trying to shame them into thoughtfulness and reminding them of strict state and local laws against cluttering up our sidewalks and highways, other sources encourage them.

I am thinking now of commercials I hear extolling the merits of beverages, soft and more authoritative. As an extra lure to potential buyers is the statement:

"They come in throw-away cans (or bottles.) No fuss or accumulation!"

MANY OF THOSE bargain throw-aways find their way to the sides of the highways. All you have to do is take a ride on Monday morning or any other day — along the roads away from the center of town.

Throwaway cans and bottles may be an enticement to buy but the advertiser should admonish his prospective customers where to throw them—in the trash barrel not on the highways.

Maybe "disposable" would be better than "throw-away."

ANOTHER THOUGHT along the same line. If there were a return value on every bottle or can, it could tend to keep the highways — and our desert, too — cleaner.

Most people would save the containers to regain their deposit and those who didn't give a hoot for cash and tossed 'em away anyway probably would lure kids with a yen for some extra spending money, to pick them up and thus help keep the desert clean.

And, with the strong breezes we occasionally have here, another contributor to a messed-up landscape is the builder who allows empty cement sacks and other light containers to be discarded loosely.

After the next strong wind, these sacks and cartons are draping bushes on the desert, block away.

FOR A LONG TIME there were only 12 incorporated cities in the county, now there are 13. And it looks as if there may be 15 within the next year.

Rancho Mirage expects to be the 14th and the action of county supervisors on its boundaries, may bring about the 15th.

When supervisors eliminated the area planned for a quarter horse track at Rancho Mirage, Desert Hot Springs stepped into the act.

If quarter horse track backers want to, they can plan their track in DHS, according to what I hear, and it will incorporate to handle the track.

IF YOU SHOULD see a pink or a purple goose, do not be alarmed. It won't be a figment of last night's over-indulgence. But for real.

The state fish and game commission has dyed 430 geese pink, green, purple and yellow and turned them loose. The idea is to help the department check their migration habits.

To those who do not know of this, it could help check some other habits.

Dr. Benjamin Goldberg

The Male Climacteric

Do males have a climacteric or change of life?

We think that there is one. This usually manifests itself at a little later period in men than in women. With a preponderance occurring in the age group between 45 and 65, but which can occur younger or older. It usually is determined in this age group through the many complaints which are made by an individual which cannot be ascribed after a careful studied examination to any other organic or functional disease.

The symptoms are tiredness, particularly mental tiredness, even though the patient is not under stress or too busy; he feels more tired than you think he has a right to be after you have inquired into it and studied him. Irritability, irascibility, anger without cause and changes in blood pressure or other blood vessel phenomena, a dragging discomfort in the groin, urinary frequency and burning, symptoms of heart disturbance, and also general pains.

The blood can be examined to determine the presence of the various hormones involved and their deficiency in amount. One must, however, be exceedingly cautious in not overlooking such mild chronic infections as brucellosis and incorrectly diagnosed heart and prostatic diseases.

TESTOSTERONE, WHICH is the male hormone, can be given to supply the deficiencies which the examination has revealed. This should also clear up the condition within a period of two or three weeks, and is a diagnostic test of the presence of the change of life.

This substance, testosterone, is also used in the treatment of the condition, and with the improvement that occurs from its use, the frequency of the injections can be diminished, as well as the amount of the hormone given. In those patients that show improvement after three or four months, this substance may be discontinued. If, however, with a return of symptoms it can once more be given.

Too many of these patients are considered psychiatric problems, and frequently are treated on a psychosomatic basis. There are instances when there may be a combination of both the abnormal mental reaction, combined with the glandular change. In such instances there usually is some improvement in the general symptoms relating to the hormonal insufficiency. There will be, however, residual psychiatric or mental aberrations which are entirely centered about the functional capacity of the brain, and these should be treated independently without neglecting the continuation of the treatment of the hormonal imbalance.

With our increases in longevity and the importance of recognizing these changes which are part of the life of the growing numbers in our aging population, it is most important to be careful and to give credence to the complaints in this group of our population.

The new division known as Geriatrics has become one of the most important in the field of medicine. No longer should the elderly individuals be shunted aside because of age when so many of their discomforts can be alleviated through simple procedure.

BILL RASHALL

Unedited

We're rolling fast toward June 1 and the real beginning of summer which comes June 1st. This finally drapes the Winter season of 1955-56 completely in brown paper.

Palm Springs could have a summer season too. But this takes concerted action on the part of hotel owners as it did in hot, humid Florida at one time. Nevertheless, it will come, this summer season, regardless of those who may object and who would rather take off for three months.

For five years Western Air Lines, willing to spend money in creating travel to Palm Springs during the summer has failed to get three or four hotels willing to sit down and work out a program. But this air line, the Greyhound bus company and Southern Pacific will eventually succeed, I am sure.

The longer one lives here the more intriguing and fantastically fabulous is this community of Palm Springs and its environs. If a story were to be written about this town there are several characters about whom an entire chapter could be devoted, some gone to their reward and others still alive and ticking.

THERE'S HERB SAMSON, now vice president of the Citizens National Trust and Savings Bank. Herb's story would make good reading. He played a definite part in the history of this city. His contemporary on the other side of Palm Canyon Drive, Fred Ingram, manager of the Bank of America, could come up with a yarn but bankers don't talk. There's Pop Gorham, for years our postmaster, who is capable of taking pen in hand and giving with some of his sardonic wit about people he's known here.

Don't forget Ed (The Hermit) Fitzgerald who in a detached sort of a way observed all that was going on around the town but never lifted his eyes from the pathway he was treading for fear of missing something of value.

And Fire Chief Bill Leonese. What stories he could write! And the stories about him too would be interesting reading. Then there's Bill Lux, sergeant of police here, most methodical in his ways and he knows a chapter or two that would be interesting. We should not under any circumstances forget Captain Orest "Horsey" Johnson with the same department, soft of voice and who looks at one most innocently through those eye glasses of his and the stories he could tell!

Need not forget one Mrs. Pearl McManus who has seen this town grow from a mere batch of sand to what it is today, and who will see it grow considerably greater. Zaddie Bunker, the flying great grandmother, who used to drive the mail truck to the Southern Pacific railway depot and if the occasion arose could fix those gasoline contraptions. Now she is tinkering around aeroplanes. I call her the "Woman with the contagious disease" — the kind of illness that makes one laugh 'cause there's a perpetual smile etched deeply into her face."

THERE WAS THE Sidewalk Philosopher Rubin Miller seated on his chair right on the corner of North Palm Canyon and Amado. Miller is long gone to his reward, as has Al Wertheimer, a most colorful character right out of the pages of a Damon Runyon story — Al is gone but some of his friends who came here with him are still around, like George the Greek and Ruby of the Dunes and many others. And what about Thelma Ryan Wertheimer Davis and the lonely death which caught up with her somewhere in Florida? She had a story or two to tell also.

Then on the other side of the street was Mother Nellie Coffman and the story which have gone the rounds on the reason why she kicked Rudolph Valentino out of The Desert Inn, and her two sons, Earl Coffman and George Roberson. I'm still waiting for that flood, George, which you said a long time ago would hit the desert but since then there's been plenty of flood controls put in.

THERE'S A CHAPTER that could be written about Alva Hicks, father of Harold and Mill, and the elder Hicks's fight to get water to Palm Springs that raged for years. The two brothers, Milt with his lumber company and golf and Harold with the water company and real estate. Two opposites in personality make-up but grand fellows. Neither one will talk about the glorious past of a town a-blossoming while they ran about the desert barefooted. Oh, they had shoes all right but why wear them?

The above are only a few names that came rapidly to mind as I pounded this column out. I want to save the rest so as to have material for another column. Like about a comparative newcomer by the name of Louise McCarn — she loves cats you know? And Robert W. Peterson, our city manager, and one about our Mayor Florian Boyd and I've written all I'm going to about Charles Farrell.

Among the top ones, of course, you may place a guy by the name of Irwin Schuman about whom several chapters could be written but he won't talk.

And I will stop right here thinking about more and more of those personalities which go into the warp and the woof of knitting a community together.

EARL WILSON:

Louis Nizer, Lawyer, Exposed

NEW YORK—Louis Nizer, the celebrated lawyer, is not the kind of man you'd suspect of writing sentimental songs about children.

Up in his office in the Paramount Bldg. he has sat with such worldly Page One clients as Bobo Rockefeller and Eleanor Holm—and in court his sarcasm can crackle.

But once in a baccalaureate address he stated his philosophy about doing more than was required of him:

"What we are is God's gift to us—and what we become is our gift to God."

Sixteen years ago, when a niece, Elizabeth Segal, was born he wrote the words and music of a song about her. The family liked it, and so did Elizabeth. As nephews and grandchildren came along, he wrote songs about them — usually while on vacation, but sometimes on the back of an envelope while on a business trip. They're not "kiddie" songs; one titled "Robin" written about a niece, now three, is, for example, quite adult:

"We cherish all the joys she brings us,
More than she can tell,
Frolic infant's charms to some man's arms
Is all too brief a spell."

Nizer contends in a song titled "Johnny" that every mother talks to her son in two languages — "different and apart. One is for his ears—and comes from the lips. The other is for herself—and comes from the heart."

And so in "Johnny" the mother sings:
"JOHNNY! You must get up,
you're late for school!
Doesn't he look darling with those sleepy eyes?"

JOHNNY! Stop acting like a little fool.
He's as smart as any boy who's twice his size."

One of Irving Berlin's discoverers, Sol Bourne, persuaded Nizer that the songs were good enough to become "standards" and now Shannon Bolin has recorded them for RCA under the title, "Songs For You." England would like Nizer to write some with some British first names—Reginald, Grace, "Erbert, something like that.

So now Louis Nizer is a member of ASCAP. He hasn't quit with just that talent, for on his office wall is a water color—his own work.

And I forgot to mention that on trips to Hawaii and Jamaica he wrote songs that are now danced to in both places. One, "Hula, Hula," explains how you hula: "You don't need any corrections," he says, "If you just go in all directions . . ."

Sounds like he's even a talented dancer!

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Rita Hayworth got up and did a solo rumba for Pearl Bailey at the Waldorf. She wouldn't do that even for Dick Haymes! Pearl also got Chevalier, Sammy Davis, Jr., and Paul Winchell to perform in her regular "guest night" . . . Frank Sinatra's gal, party Peggy Connolly (of Fort Worth), just back from Madrid, did Sardi's with Irving Lazzar. Asked whether Grace and Rainier saw Frank in Spain, she answered, "Franco, but not Frank."

Perry Como's turning 44 . . . Joan Blondell and Dolores Gray are mentioned as Helen Traubel replacements in "Pipe Dream" . . . Gary Cooper's wife, ditto, and mother-in-law are with him in Europe . . . Martha Hyer and Dr. Bob Hamilton of S. Francisco are close to an engagement.

Rocky Graziano was seen buying two copies of Vogue! . . . GOP Chrm. Hall invited Gen. MacArthur to address the convention . . . Dore Schary, the MGM boss, whacked off 14 pounds . . . Carol Saroyan Grace and Chris Plummer were at the Purple Tree . . . Ford may issue another couple million common stock for public sale in the fall.

Elizabeth Taylor's docs told her to take it easy: sinus . . . Duo: Frank Parker and Toni Sherrill, the Las Vegas showgirl . . . Ava Gardner sent Frank Sinatra's mother a Mother's Day letter and, by the way, what's Artie Shaw doing in Spain?

EARL'S PEARLS . . .

NEW YORK (AP) — John Landy, Australia's magnificent miler, grinned as he said he was a mite surprised that "nobody has slipped any sleeping pills in my coffee."

It seems that maybe Landy, who has smashed the four minute mark six times and holds the world record of 3:58, had a right to be a bit uneasy when he came to the United States for two special races. So did his fans at home.

One actually sent him a wire asking him not to come. "Reconsider," pleaded the wire. "Remember Phar Lap and Les Darcy." It was signed: "An admirer."

DARCY WAS THE middleweight who came here in 1917, was accused of being a slacker and died of a "mental disorder" which was another way of saying a broken heart, at Memphis, Tenn. Phar Lap was the Australian wonder horse which was shipped here in 1932 and, after winning the $50,000 Agua Caliente Handicap in his only race, died mysteriously of colic.

But Landy came, smashed the four minute barrier in both his races and now, albeit with true modesty, is admiring everything and everybody as he awaits his safe arrival home with crossed fingers. So that nobody would take a pot shot at him, Landy placated the young and the old.

HE ALLOWED:

1. That there are "six or seven" runners today capable of running a 3:55 mile and that it is impossible to name the probably "fantastic" minimum if new training methods are devised.
2. That Southern California's Bobby Seaman is the best prospective miler in the world today; Villanova's Ron Delany "can be outstanding in the next two or three years," and Pittsburgh's Sowell may chase everybody into the shade.
3. That Wes Santee, recently barred for professionalism, "had the greatest physical endowment of any runner since the war."

4. THAT HE WOULDN'T be surprised to see "somebody we never heard of" win the Olympic 1,500-meter run, the metric mile.
5. That the current athletes, training twice as long as such oldtimers as Glenn Cunningham, Syd Wooderson and Gunder Hagg, "aren't better and in some cases aren't as good." Using the old methods, he insisted, "four or five of us marquerading as milers today wouldn't be fit to run 4:15."
6. And that he has "no great liking for distance running" but prefers to run the shortest distance he can.

Russ Wade Repeats as Desert Rat Champion

Cards 138 to Retain Title Won in 1955

Field Of 110 Sets Record In Fifth Event At Tamarisk

Russell Wade, local realtor, repeated as champion of the Desert Rat tournament last weekend at Tamarisk Country Club when he won the fifth annual event with a net 138 for the 36-hole play.

Bernie Solomon was second with 139. Jim Flutch and Pro Elly Vines, the latter shooting from scratch, were tied for third with 142's and Marvin Weiss, who won the 1954 Desert Rat tournament, Glen Thomas, and Paul Hodnik, were tied for the next spot with 143's.

ELLY VINES, Tamarisk Club pro, took low gross honors with his 142.

The field was the largest in Tamarisk Country Club Desert Rat tournament history with 110 residents of the Palm Springs area and Coachella Valley shooting for the prizes. Several sets of golf clubs, golf bags and other valuable prizes, were awarded the winners Sunday night at the close of the event.

ALTHOUGH the Desert Rat tournament ended the official season at Tamarisk, the golf course will remain open to the public during the summer.

Vines will leave this week for the Inwood Country Club in the East this week but will be back October 1 for the new season.

He said the current season, just ended, was the best in the club's history with play on the course well above last year.

Leaders in each of the three flights of the tournament follow:

Elly Vines Tops PGA Qualifiers

Ellsworth Vines, pro at Tamarisk Country Club, heads a list of six Southern California golfers qualifying for the National PGA Golf Championship scheduled at Canton, Massachusetts July 20-26.

Vines, with six birdies and a flock of pars, led qualifiers Monday with rounds of 70-72 for a total of 142 on the 71-par Hillcrest Country Club course.

Others qualifying were Dick Lundahl, 72-72; Wayne Otis, 73-72; Earl Martin, 72-74; Joe Kirkwood Jr., 70-77; and Marshall Holt, 76-72.

Bruins Facing Another Severe Blow from PCC

VICTORIA, B.C. (AP)—The UCLA football dynasty, torpedoed and all but sunk by the Pacific Coast Conference, faced one more jeopardy today—complete destruction.

It is in the power of UCLA Chancellor Raymond B. Allen to declare all members of the 1955 varsity and freshmen teams permanently ineligible, unless they can prove they were not professionalized by financial aid from two booster clubs not authorized by the conference code.

If this should happen, UCLA could not field a football team next fall.

Haddock and Rauch have been attending several meetings in which formation of a Pony League including Palm Springs, Banning, Beaumont, San Jacinto and Indio, was the topic. Final decision on Pony League plans will be made within a week.

Games for the Colts are also being sought by Rauch and Haddock.

The PCC Monday lowered another boom on the crumbling Bruins by declaring all 1955 football players who participated in varsity and freshman games ineligible for one year, unless they can show positively they were not paid under the table to play football.

The penalty, a modification of a recommendation that the players be declared permanently ineligible, made the UCLA situation the most shocking in collegiate football since the cribbing scandal at West Point.

Saturday the conference levied a $95,000 fine against the Bruins and a three-year ban from the Rose Bowl, plus probation and withdrawal of conference standings in any sport, plus barment from any post-season playoff during the period.

UCLA football Coach Red Sanders said the conference took the "bone and sinew" out of his 1956 squad because all the juniors who become seniors next fall, are ineligible unless they prove they are innocent. The freshmen and sophomores affected have a choice of sitting out any one of the years they have left of competition.

VICTORIA, B.C. (AP)—A man who is in a position to know said today that Ronnie Knox has "the cleanest record of any athlete attending UCLA."

This man, who insisted that his name not be used, said if records are produced, "They will show Ronnie did not receive one red cent of illegal financial aid."

Issue Call for Pony and Colt Loop Players

First Practice To Be Held Tomorrow At Polo Grounds

First practice session of the season for prospective Pony and Colt leaguers will be held tomorrow afternoon at the Polo Grounds, Howard Haddock, City Recreation Department superintendent, said today.

Palm Springs Elks Lodge is again sponsoring the youngsters who want to play baseball.

Boys in the 13-14 year age bracket are eligible for Pony League competition and those of the 15-16 year bracket for the Colt League. Boys in the 8-12 bracket are already organized in the Little League.

Herb Rauch of the Elks will again manage the teams.

Highlight of tomorrow evening's initial session will be the showing of last year's World Series movies after practice. All boys are invited.

Haddock and Rauch have been attending several meetings in which formation of a Pony League including Palm Springs, Banning, Beaumont, San Jacinto and Indio, was the topic. Final decision on Pony League plans will be made within a week.

Games for the Colts are also being sought by Rauch and Haddock.

Angels, Padres Clashing Today

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles Angels today hope to break a losing jinx in opening a three-game series against the San Diego Padres at Wrigley Field.

John Carmichael 4-2 hurls for San Diego in the afternoon contest today against the Angels' George Piktuzis 0-0.

Charles Dreams Alone Following Defeat by Bethea

NEW YORK (AP)—Ex-heavyweight champion Ezzard Charles still had his "dream" today but no one else shared it after his licking Monday night by obscure young Wayne Bethea in their televised 10-rounder at St. Nicholas Arena.

"I won't retire," said 34-year-old Ezzard. "I got my dream of fighting in the elimination tournament and winning the vacant title for the second time. My mistake last night was thinkin' too much instead of just punchin' away."

Manager Tom Tannas said, "It's up to Ezzard. If he wants to keep fighting I won't order him to quit."

Betha, a husky but awkward 23-year-old New York Negro, registered his outstanding victory on a unanimous decision over Ezzard; but it was not an upset because a last-minute betting switch had sent young Wayne into the ring as a 6-5 favorite. At noon Monday, Charles was favored at 8-5.

Seattle's Hold on Top PCL Spot is Short-Lived

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP)—The Seattle Rainiers bobbed to the top of the Pacific Coast League Monday, but got pulled back under by the Vancouver Mounties before they had a chance to take a deep breath.

In the only games scheduled in the loop, the Rainiers trimmed the Mounties, 7-4, in the opening contest of a doubleheader, but came out on the short end of a 3-1 score in the second game.

MANTLE HITS 16TH HOMER ON WAY TO THREATEN RUTH'S RECORD OF 60

By EARL WRIGHT
United Press Sports Writer

New York Yankee fans are all hepped up about Mickey Mantle's chances of breaking Babe Ruth's home run record but seven American League clubs just wish he'd quit breaking their backs.

Mantle, who blasted his 16th homer to provide the decisive run in New York's 8-5 triumph over the Athletics Monday at Kansas City, now is 11 games and 10 days ahead of the Babe's pace when he set an all-time big league record of 60 homers in 1927.

And the switch-hitting Yankee center fielder, far and away the top early-season candidate for the American League's "most valuable player" award, isn't playing any favorites, either.

OF HIS 16 HOMERS, he has hit four apiece against the Athletics and Cleveland Indians, three against the Boston Red Sox, two apiece against the Chicago White Sox and Washington Senators and one against the Detroit Tigers. Only the Baltimore Orioles have escaped his homer barrage, and Mantle figures to rectify that oversight before the season gets much older.

Mantle leads both major leagues in four batting departments—homers 16, batting average .408, runs scored 36, and hits 4, and is second only to teammate Yogi

Berra in runs batted, 34 to 33. Any wonder that White Sox Manager Marty Marion said recently, "I'd gladly give a million dollars for Mantle, if I had it."

In the only other major league game schedule, Wilmer Vinegar Bend Mizell's four-hit pitching, plus homers by Rip Repulski and Bill Sarni, enabled the St. Louis Cardinals to defeat the Giants at New York, 4-1.

THE VICTORY put the Cardinals in second place in the National League. St. Louis has an 18-12 record, actually a half-game better than Milwaukee's 13-8 mark. However, the Braves hold first place with a .619 percentage against .600 for the Cardinals.

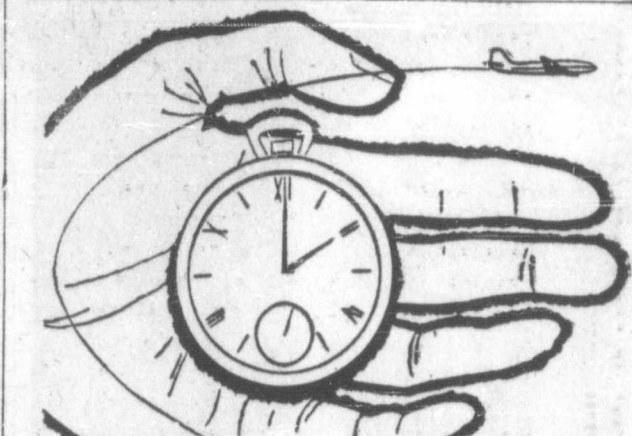

Repulski, the National's leading hitter with a .404 average, put the Cardinals in front to stay when he hit his sixth 1956 homer off losing pitcher Don Liddle in the second inning. St. Louis finished Liddle with three runs in the fifth on Wally Moon's single, Bobby Del Greco's triple, Foster Castelman's error and Sarni's homer.

Mizell, boosting his record to 3-2, didn't allow a batter to advance past first until Don Mueller homered with two out in the seventh for New York's run.

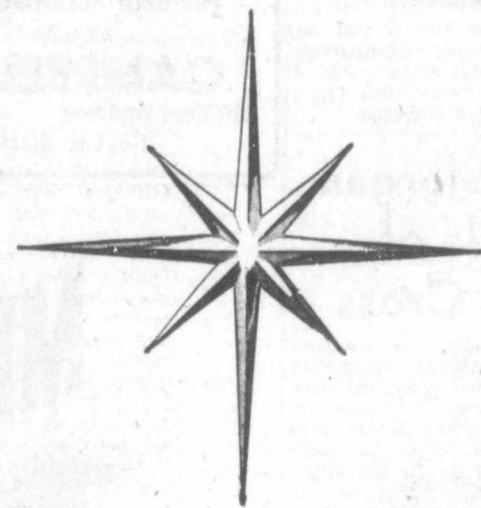

THE FIRST-PLACE Yankees scored their sixth straight triumph although their starting pitcher failed to last for the fourth straight time. Don Sturdivant, who replaced Don Larsen in the second was the winner. Tom Morgan pitched the ninth for the Yanks.

Gil McDougald hit a three-run homer during New York's five-run first inning but the Athletics actually collected more homers than the winners with Harry Simpson hitting two and Gus Zernial and Hector Lopez one each.

But Mantle provided the winning run with his fifth inning homer and it was a hum-dinger. The drive cleared two fences in right field, the second a 40-foot high barrier more than 400 feet from the plate. It was only the sixth ball hit over that fence in 33 years.

LINCOLN

The longest, lowest, most powerful Lincoln ever built

People who know fine cars are changing to Lincoln

More fine car buyers are changing to Lincoln this year than ever before in Lincoln's entire history—because they recognize that this longest, lowest, most powerful Lincoln of all time is unmistakably... the finest in the fine car field.

Naturally, most of these people are turning to Lincoln because of its fresh, trend-setting new styling. But after owning Lincoln, they praise this car's other fine qualities.

They tell us—time and time again—about Lincoln's exceptional handling ease. They're surprised that such a big, roomy car can be so effortless to drive—and that wives actually prefer this Lincoln over the family's smaller car.

They tell us about Lincoln's outstanding performance, too—in dozens of ways. Those who have never experienced Turbo-Drive are astonished to find that an automatic transmission can be so smooth... and those who take long trips say that this Lincoln makes the ride seem so much shorter.

And they tell us about roadability. They like the way Lincoln rides so firmly through a curve—and the freedom of taking any road they choose... instead of avoiding the bad ones.

If you've been thinking this is your kind of fine car, stop in and see us. We'll put a new Lincoln at your disposal any time you say.

Bride-to-be is Honored at Shower

Miss Marilyn Isbell, who will be the bride of Robert Robertson on Thursday evening, was honored at a luncheon shower at Deep Well. The charming affair had been arranged by Mrs. G. A. Berg, but due to her recent bereavement, Mrs. James Blackstone acted as substitute hostess. Cascades of floral arrangements decorated the three tables.

Guests at the luncheon and shower were: Mesdames Bessie Isbell, mother of the bride-to-be, Edna Foldes, Hilda Abbott, Rae Isbell, mother of the bride-to-be Ostberg, Emma Cameron, Pauline Smith, Barbara Pernet, Eloise Green, Grace Keck, Hilda Fredricksen, Lucille Beck, Lorna Little, Laura Busby, Mary Cook, Carol Leoncio, Vallie Castle, Kathleen Catherwood, Marcy Buresh, Rena Maynard, Katherine Reakes, Margot Morrison, Loretta Ashbaugh, and the Misses Trudy Hui, Kay Busby, Margaret Buresh, Cory Buresh, Nancy Henderson, Kanema Sanders, Joan Busby, Donna and Bette Robertson, Mary Morton, Marilyn Logan, Susan Catherwood.

THE PARENT-TEACHER GROUP of Katherine Finchy School honored the retiring president Mrs. Henry Tuttle and her board at a luncheon at the Ranch Club on Friday. Here Mrs. Tuttle, on right, is shown with the new president Mrs. Earle Mitchell, center, and Mrs. Bernard Malin, on left, who is secretary of the group and acted as chairman for the luncheon. Poolside Party on Birthday

A poolside party Saturday night at the Max Kornegate home at 1555 Indian Trail, was a birthday surprise arranged for Mr. Kornegate by his wife.

There was dancing and games in the flower-decorated patio and a midnight buffet was eaten at candlelight tables. A yellow-iced birthday cake, surrounded by lighted candles and gardenias, topped the buffet.

Myrtle Litzenberger will be installed as president of the American Legion Auxiliary at a joint installation of the Owen Coffman Post and Auxiliary to be held at Wars Memorial Building on June 6, at 8 p.m. Mrs. Litzenberger succeeds Dolores Lowry as president.

Local Talent Marks Second Phase of Beaux Arts Ball

Between 250 and 300 Villagers gathered on the tennis courts at the Tennis Club Saturday evening for the second half of the Beaux Arts Ball, postponed from a rainy night in April.

Entertainment by local artists marked the evening, which was highlighted by a grand march and awarding of prizes for the best costumes. First prize went to Pat and Slim Moorten, in authentic Mexican attire, and other prize winners were: Gordon Krysak, Mrs. Mary Wolseth, Mrs. Charles Mendelson and her French poodle Cherie, and Mr. and Mrs. G. N. George.

The Desert Art Center, which sponsors the Beaux Arts Ball each year, has Guilds of painters, sculptors, musicians, writers and photographers, and some of their artistic talent had gone into the settings for the out-door Ball. Pat and Slim Moorten, of the Photographers Guild, had a Mexican booth; Fernie Webb's was Brazil; Elaine Stevens and Theora Wight, Hawaii; Mrs. A. R. Simon, Arabia, with beautiful hand-embroidered silken tent background; Bill Darling, Hungary; Joan Forville and Harriet Farnsworth, Gypsy booth.

The fine program enjoyed the music of Jules De Vorzon and his orchestra which also played for dancing.

Harry and Christine Tomlinson (he heads the Palm Springs Civic Chorus) were presented in a group of two-piano selections; Maxine Jusela appeared first with Hawaiian dances and later with her sinuous fluorescent dance that utilizes colored streamers on wands so effectively; Miss Willa Knight who made her radio debut touring with Horace Heidt's show, sang a group of songs; Ingrid and Gordon Ayres, of the Arthur Murray Dance Studio, presented an International Cavalcade of dances, against a background of flags of all nations; Wynne and Alex Hammond pleased the audience with their song hits from "Oklahoma", accompanied by Lois Lux at the piano.

The program was emceed by Everett Ball and arrangements were under the chairmanship of Mrs. Estelle Yerkes, this year's Beaux Arts Ball chairman.

Swimming and Supper Party Fete Birthday

The J. Ross Clark home at Thunderbird was the scene of a swim party and supper Saturday, celebrating Patty's 10th birthday. The outdoor area by the pool was festive with balloons and streamers. The party guests swam and played games like tossing sandbags through a clown's head, pinning the tail on the donkey and a dart game.

Joan Davis was there to wish Patty a "Happy Birthday" and assist with the party, and Lucille Ball Arnez and their two youngsters, Ricky and Lucy, came to the party.

Other guests were Trent Barnes, Phyllis Harris, Susie Hinkle, Barbara and Mary McCulloch, Teresa Hicks, Judy Nutton, Betty Hendrickson, Sarah Hicks, Jane Harris, Susie Petry, Corky Armstrong, Sally Mason, Pamela Tackett, Cindy and Donna Bogert, Jill McGrew.

Mrs. Morgan is Bride of Clark Cross

Drucilla Morgan who has been a resident of Rancho Trailer Park for the past few years, and Clark Cross, industrial arts teacher in the Whittier School District, were married May 12 in the Little Church of the West in Las Vegas. Attendants were Jay Cross, son of the bridegroom, and Pat Boice, granddaughter of the bride.

The bride was particularly lovely in a blue lace sheath gown with blue linen jacket, white hat and accessories of clear vinyl.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner for the bridal party and friends was held at the New Frontier Hotel. Relatives of the bride, present at the dinner, were Mr. and Mrs. Heber A. Boice and their daughter Pat, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Morgan. Relatives of the bridegroom were Jay Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Potter, Mrs. Ruth Maxwell and Thomas Brown. Friends present were Robert E. Cather, Beverly and Eileen Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Potter, Arthur Melvin, Mr. and Mrs. Chet Shelley of Las Vegas, and Mr. and Mrs. George Meecham of Provo, Utah.

After a short honeymoon, the couple will make their home in Whittier, with weekend visits to their home in Rancho.

SURREY WITH THE FRINGE ON TOP and other hit tunes from "Oklahoma!" were sung by Wynne and Alex Hammond as part of the entertainment at Beaux Art Ball Saturday night. (Desert Sun Photo)

Realtors Will Install

Palm Springs Real Estate Board will hold its installation dinner at the Ranch Club on Thursday evening at 7 p.m., with husbands and wives as guests. The dinner will wind up a busy and successful year for the Board.

Mrs. Theresa Press will be installed as president, succeeding Terry Ray. Installing officer, Isabel Mitchell, Compton realtor and past president of the Women's Division of CREA will also install directors Ernie Dunlevie, Mildred Jackson, Lou Levy, Roy Randolph and Frances Wilson. Holdover officers are Billy Wright and Mike Jekyll and the retiring president, Terry Ray, becomes an ex-officio member of the board.

New York cut steaks will feature the dinner menu and there will be dancing to the music of Hal White's Trio. Surprise entertainment is being arranged by Terry Ray and Roy Randolph.

Sunday Night Party Fetes Ohio Guests

Mrs. William Eisenman received her guests in the flower-decorated living room of her home at 220 Hermosa Place Sunday evening, when she entertained for her houseguests Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wilson of Canton, Ohio.

Guests were ushered on to the ocean-decorated patio, where luau torches blazed, and iced punch was served from watermelon bowls, along with cocktails. Oleaners also decorated the tables which were set up on the badminton court, with fried chicken and end-of-the-season corn featuring the buffet. Johnny Boyle, who catered the buffet, sang and there was dancing to the music of the Wagoners. Impromptu entertainment included Franklyn McManus, singing "Because," and Scotty from El Mirador, also sang.

Among the guests were the Tom Hollands, Mahlon Mansons, Mrs. Clem Rogers, Mrs. Arthur Kane, Captain and Mrs. Duke Bellingham, Mrs. John Coleman, the Burnham Bigelows, Paul Austs, Martin Wades, John Malienkes, Mrs. Noble Banks, Mrs. John Blish, Mrs. Hortense Murray, the Ralph Shelleys, Mrs. Laurena Heple (who has just purchased the Johnson house), the Lynn Briggs, Virginia Dooley, Dr. and Mrs. William McBride.

Also Mrs. Ruth Hardy, Mrs. J. Darsie Lloyd, the Stanley Whitworths, George Shaw (he's at the Hollywood Athletic Club for the summer, but came down for the weekend), Bob Palmer, Franklyn McManus.

Mrs. Eisenman and the Wilsons went in to Los Angeles today to spend a few days at the Town House, before the visitors leave for Canton. Mrs. Eisenman will return here for a short stay before she leaves to join her husband in Cleveland for the summer.

If you hear someone referring to the Froggatts' Fish Fry Saturday night... It isn't because there was any fish on the menu... Phyllis and Joe held their cocktail-buffet at the Committee of 25 clubhouse, with 160 guests (out-of-town columnists, please note... 160 guests)... the same night that the Volunteer Firemen held their annual Fish Fry a little farther up the golf course... and drew a few lost souls looking for the Fish Fry... West Alejo Road was jammed with cars as a result of the two big affairs, so close together...

No fish, but, in the "cotton-married-to-diamonds" tradition... the buffet offered both caviar and beans... There was turkey and chicken drumsticks (George Dulany said "from centipede chickens")... roast beef... and an array of hors d'oeuvres, including smoked oysters and those tiny hamburgers Santos makes so appetizingly...

Dance floor and tables were set up on the green that merges into O'Donnell Golf Course... There was a reunion spirit, always common at this time of year... While some people have gone... it's fun to see so many friends still here... Joe and Phyllis and their houseguests, Gretchen and George Barraclough at the party... Bettye and Monte Herbert came down especially to attend... and Florence and Harold Murphy (home from their world tour) were there.

Jock Williamson escorted his sister Margaret Drummond... They are lingering here for several weeks because Jock has started construction on his house near Thunderbird... but when Margaret returns to her home on the Isle of Wight... Jock goes along for a summer visit...

Virginia and Henry Dollard were accompanied by his son, Commander John T. Dollard and his wife Billie... who visited here for a few days on their way to Port Hueneme... They are just back from Europe where he was with SHAPE... The Senior Dollards will be here another two weeks before going to their summer home in La Jolla...

The Wally Brummarks have their tickets and plan to leave June 27 by SAS Polar Flight for a visit to Sweden and other Scandinavian countries... Wally is visiting his homeland and will do some genealogical research while there... The Harrison Fishers had their houseguest Lucian Simpson with them... and handsome young Gary Malouf was escorting his mother (Billy is in the East on business)...

Chatted with Earl Cordrey and he and Kay will be here until the first of July... when they go to Taxco, Mexico... where he plans to paint for two months...

Ed Thrasher was looking Esquiritish in Bermuda shorts and knee-length socks, sport shirt and jacket... smart and comfortable attire that has a future in Palm Springs... At least it is decreed for next Saturday night for the Bob Hope premiere...

Diamond wristwatches aren't standard equipment for swimming... but Blanche Dulany didn't remove hers when she went into the swimming pool (clothes and all) at Emma Gale's house the night before (after the intimate dinner party at the Beachcombers... given by Kay and Dolph Obergefel... and was still being teased about it...)

The moon, just past its half, came up and there was dancing to the music of the Wagoners... with some extra-curricular assistance from Maury Pavny... who was really beating the drum... He had brought his drum to the Fish Fry... and when no band showed up he moved over and joined the Wagoners for his favorite form of recreation...

On the dance floor were Lucy and Dick Long, Georgiana Poston and Harold Hicks, Col. Ray Shelby and Bertine Treat, Melba and Frank Bennett... Edith and Dick Edwards, B. J. and Belmont San Chez... Dorothy and Dan Dunlap, down from Long Beach for the party (Dorothy and their 11-year-old son Billy are going to Guatemala in August to look at volcanoes or something)...

Aviation Breakfast Club Has Reunion Weekend Here

Of special significance to a weekend of fun and business, pre-small group of members who helped form the organization 20 years ago, was the annual trek of the Southern California Aviation Breakfast Club to Palm Springs this weekend.

As members of the "Ninety Nines," women pilots' group, they decided to meet once a month for breakfast at various airports, partly in the interest of friendship and partly to promote flying. The popular group expanded rapidly and now numbers around 150 members. About 60 members and guests flew or drove in for the retary; and Col. Joe Herron, Dorothy Reuther, Esther Johnson, Jack Dameron, Dr. Toler, Anson Brown, Bonny Burke and Mr. Allin, directors. There was amusing competition for the "Fliers Wings" which go to the teller of the tallest tale.

Among charter members enjoying the reunion were Clema Granger and Betty Mae Furnman of Palm Springs, Melba Beard of Scottsdale, Esther Johnson, Anita Thorley, Dorothy Reuther and Estelle Manbeck of Los Angeles.

Beth Scott left yesterday to spend the summer with her parents, the Albert Scotts, in San Diego.

Back to Chicago

Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Elrod of 1219 Paseo El Mirador, are moving back to Chicago, after a two year's residence in the Village. He will sell Warner Brothers pictures to television and head the new company, Associated Artists, as Mid-west representative.

Mrs. Jennie Leonese of 458 East Amado Road, leaves May 30 for Yellowstone, where she will be at the Mammoth Hotel until the last of September. This is her fifth season as housekeeper for the resort hotel.

belongs to Mrs. Schwine's nephew Otto, who, so far as I know, is the only Custom Hour Glass Manufacturer in the country. He's doing fine now but last year he almost went bankrupt. He was getting all of his sand from the beach at Coney Island and the grapefruit rinds and the pop-sicle sticks wouldn't go through the Hour Glasses. But then he started swiping sand from those big ash tray urns in the lobbies of Hotels and Movies and his troubles were over. Well, almost over. This ash tray sand was full of old cigarette stubs which slowed down the Hour Glasses as much as 45 minutes a day, but Otto worked out an ingenious method for getting rid of them. He started smoking.

CONFIDENT LIVING

By Norman Vincent Peale

Bringing Out the Best Within Us

A friend of mine was once lunching with the late Henry Ford. The great automobile manufacturer asked him, "Who's your best friend?"

My friend started to name some people who might fall into this category. But Ford just shook his head and reached into his pocket for a pen.

"No," Ford said, "I'll tell you who your best friend is." And then he took the pen and wrote these words on the tablecloth, "Your best friend is the person who brings out of you the best that is within you."

I heard the other day of a charming, even significant, compliment a man gave his wife on their wedding anniversary. I wish I had thought of it and said it to my own wife. This man told his wife, "I not only love you for what you are, I love you for what I want to be when I am with you."

People can have a great creative effect on each other. We interact with other people and this causes things to happen to us.

The great figures of history—Jesus, Moses, Gandhi—possessed to a higher degree this quality of being able to lift people out of themselves and make something better of them. They did not give people something they did not have before, but their example and their ability to inspire and appeal to human nature brought out of people the best they had within them.

The times, too, can often bring out the best in us. The more they demand of us, the more we seem able to give. During the darkest days of the American Revolution, Thomas Paine wrote: "These are the times that try men's souls. The summer soldier and the sunshine patriot will, in this crisis, shrink from the service of their country; but he that stands it now, deserves the love and thanks of man and woman. Tyranny, like hell, is not easily conquered; yet we have this consolation with us, that the harder the conflict, the more glorious the triumph." And those times brought out the best in the American colonists and gave us the freedoms we prize in the United States today.

Each of us is a mixture of good and bad. These forces are often engaged in conflict within us, and indeed we are involved in this struggle throughout our lives. When we employ right thinking, faith, and character to bring out the tremendous potential of good that is within us, we are then filled with pure joy because we have mastered ourselves, and scarcely any happiness equals that. But, when we settle for our worst, or less than our best, we begin to feel vaguely unworthy and unhappy. Inevitably, we must explain to ourselves why we are not living at our best. We try to justify this fact to ourselves unconsciously by a process called rationalization. By this we mean the impossible effort to make the irrational into a rational concept and to make black appear to be white. In other words, we lie to ourselves. And such lying to oneself causes inner conflict, leaving one pathetically mixed up. Nevertheless, we all try this unhappy process at one time or another.

Fortunately, there is a power which, in effect, is the best friend of each of us. That power is God. It is amazing what His creative force can do in bringing the best out of people. God can take a person who is mixed up, in conflict, overcome by his weaknesses, and make him into a well integrated, strong, and effective person. Through a process of personality change, the best in an individual becomes uppermost. Perhaps this is the ultimate meaning of life on earth, to bring out the best within us.

NOTICE OF AWARD OF CONTRACT FOR THE CONSTRUCTION OF CERTAIN STREET IMPROVEMENTS IN THE CITY OF PALM SPRINGS, CALIFORNIA (ASSESSMENT DISTRICT NO. 13).
Pursuant to a Resolution and Award of Contract No. 4372 the City Council of the City of Palm Springs, California, adopted on the 9th day of May, 1956, declaring this notice.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the City Council in open session of the 9th day of May, 1956, opened, examined and publicly declared all sealed proposals or bids offered for the construction of a street, as follows, to-wit:

The grading, paving with plant mixed surface, construction of cement concrete curbs and gutters and appurtenant work in connection therewith in Via Soledad and other streets, all as particularly described in Resolution of Intention No. 4359, passed and adopted by the City Council of said City on the 31st day of February, 1956, and on file in the office of the City Clerk of said City.

For further particulars, reference is hereby made to said Resolution of Intention No. 4359, adopted on the 31st day of February, 1956, and to the plans, profiles and drawings No. 617 and No. 618, A & B, consisting of four (4) sheets, on file in the office of the City Clerk of said City; and all of said plans, profiles, drawings and specifications heretofore approved by the City Council of said City are incorporated herein and made a part hereof, and reference is hereby made thereto for a more particular description of said work. The said City Council has determined and declared that the contemplated work and improvement heretofore mentioned was, in the opinion of the said City Council of more than local or ordinary public benefit and said City Council has made the expenses of said work chargeable upon a district. For the particular description of said district reference is hereby made to said Resolution of Intention No. 4359, adopted February 21, 1956.

Said City Council has determined that serial bonds bearing interest at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum and extending over a period of nine (9) years from the 2nd day of January next succeeding the next October 15th following their date, will be issued hereunder in the manner provided by the "Improvement Act of 1911," being Part 5, Division 7 of the Streets and Highways Code of the State of California, to represent each assessment of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) or more remaining unpaid for thirty (30) days after the date of the recording of the warrant. All of the work herein ordered shall be done and carried through in pursuance of an act of the legislature of the State of California designated the "Improvement Act of 1911," being Division 7 of the Streets and Highways Code.

The City Council did, by Resolution of Award of Contract No. 4372, Award

Nominating Committee's Slate of Directors are Elected by Playhouse

The slate of nine directors presented by the nominating committee was unanimously elected, with no nominations from the floor, when the Palm Springs Playhouse Guild held its third annual meeting at the Palm Springs Playhouse yesterday afternoon.

Nominees elected were: Mmes. John F. Luccarelli, Gwynne Hurrell, E. Stewart Williams, John F. Kenaston, Alexander Marcuse, Henry L. Dollard, and Messrs. Frank Bennett, John Morgan and Harold Murphy.

Mrs. Harry Clatworthy, chairman, presented the nominations for the nominating committee, which consisted of Mmes. Harry W. Clatworthy, John McClure, W. F. Schlotman, Charles Danl and Harry Joe Brown. Organization of the board will take place at a meeting tentatively scheduled for Friday at the Guild headquarters.

In a statement to the press, Warren Slaughter, who has served as secretary for the Guild for the past two years, said that only pressure of business kept him from being a candidate again this year. "I am not resigning," he said.

THE ONLY COMMENT on the resignations of Mrs. Thomas Fleming, Mrs. S. P. Manasse, Mrs. Austin McManus and Homer Hilton from the board last week, was made by Mrs. Luccarelli in her president's report, when she said, "The reason given... was disharmony on the board... The Guild and its purpose is so big and has gained such momentum in the right direction, that the resignations of a few individuals cannot possibly prevent the Guild from having continued progress."

The treasurer's report, presented by Mrs. Hurrell, showed receipts of $40,618.32, disbursements of $35,330.74, and a balance of $5,287.58, plus money in a trust account which brought the total to $6,075.24.

Reports included program advertising, with a net profit of $2048.85, and a membership report, which showed 60 supporting members, 37 patrons and patronesses, one benefactor, and one founder benefactor this season for a total of 99 members.

CIVIC ORGANIZATIONS participated in the sale of books of season tickets, with the Hotel and Apartment Owners Association, headed by Adele Colgan, selling 421 books. St. Paul's Guild sold 111 books, and the AAUW, 72. Participating organizations received 10 per cent for their ticket sales. The Guild had guaranteed the sale of 1500 ticket books this season with Producer Herb Rogers planning his cast and productions accordingly. Since only 1277 books and three tickets were sold, the Guild made up the difference, with Rogers receiving $31,356.50 as a result of the contract.

There were 13 First Nighter dinners held at various clubs and hotels, with attendance ranging from 170 to 46. The Edith Small fashion show luncheon at El Mirador raised $3,110, with a net profit of $1,628.73. The Sponsors Ball on January 16 brought in $3,474, with the net profit $1,245.06.

Frank Bennett reported on the ill-fated Philharmonic concert, which wound up with a profit of $1,257.25 because of the weather insurance, for which $5,000 was collected.

Plans for the coming year include bringing the Dublin Players to Palm Springs, and an Easter concert by the Los Angeles Philharmonic. On June 21, the Guild plans to sponsor an appearance of the Spokane Dancers, the Silver Spurs, a group of teen-age folk dancers.

90 Richfield Dealers Here for Meeting

Ninety Richfield Oil Company dealers from Beaumont to Blythe held a one-day meeting at the Palm Springs Biltmore Hotel yesterday, climaxed with a dinner and show last night.

In charge of the group were Fred M. Jordan and M. F. Bach, Richfield advertising executives from Los Angeles; W. A. Day-vault, Blythe; L. C. Cox, Coachella Valley, and Lyman Oberholte, Beaumont, commission agencies.

Senate-House Conferees Agree on New Farm Bill

By UNITED PRESS

Senate-House conferees agreed on a new farm bill today and Republican leaders predicted that President Eisenhower will sign it. Sen. Allen J. Ellender (D-La.) chairman of the conference, said he expects Congress to send the bill to the White House Wednesday.

Elsewhere in Congress: MAIL: The House Post Office Committee today approved a bill to raise the price of stamps for first class mail from three to four cents an ounce.

The measure also hikes air mail rates from six to seven cents and provides for other increases on second and third class mail. The bill now will go to the House. The Senate still hasn't acted.

PASSPORTS: Chairman Francis E. Walter (D-Pa.) said his House Un-American Activities Committee will hold public hearings Wednesday to decide whether legislation is needed to give the State Department broader authority to issue passports.

SOBELOFF: Southern Democratic Senators again attacked the long-stalled nomination of Solicitor General Simon E. Sobeloff to the federal bench. Sens. Olin D. Johnston (S.C.) and Sam J. Ervin Jr. (N.C.) criticized Sobeloff's nomination because of his role in the Supreme Court school segregation ruling. The nomination is before a Senate judiciary subcommittee.

Smokers at Last Get Kind Words on Their Habit

NEW YORK (AP) — Some kind words on smoking were presented Tuesday at the annual meeting of the National Tuberculosis Association.

Researchers of Tufts University School of Medicine, Boston, reported that smoking doesn't interfere with the breathing processes of healthy persons and may even provide "some improvement in certain aspects of pulmonary ventilation."

On the other hand, smoking caused "an impairment" of the mechanics of breathing in persons with heart or lung disease, Drs. Ernst O. Attinger and Maurice S. Segal reported, but the effect was "only transitory."

Dr. Leonard Greensburg, commissioner of New York City's Department of Air Pollution, said smoking may be related to "increases in lung cancer but 'contaminated air is also to blame.'"

Rotary to Install Here Tomorrow

Palm Springs Rotary Club will hold its annual installation of officers at a dinner-dance Wednesday night at Deep Well Inn. Cocktail hour will be from 7 o'clock with dinner to start at 8.

New officers are: Jim Cavett, president; C. Ronald Ellis, first vice president; Stewart Williams, second vice president; Henry F. Baker, third vice president; Jerry Bunker, secretary-treasurer. Don Miller is out going president, and Bob McKenzie, who resigned as president earlier this year because of his transfer to Los Angeles, will be installing officer.

Juveniles Smash $100 Worth of Windows

Howard Haddock, city recreation director, reported to police that all the windows at the Polo Grounds and baseball park were broken over the weekend. Evidence indicated juveniles had thrown rocks through the glass. Estimated damage was $100.

School Thefts Under Inquiry

Police are investigating a malicious mischief and petty theft case reported yesterday at the Junior and Senior high school plant. Juveniles broke into the high school gym during the weekend and tore up the girls locker-room, breaking a wrist-watch that was found in one of them.

On a report from the Junior High school, Officer Matt Calac investigated a forced entry and the theft of a canister containing $7
